Direct Access: You must access Compliance Manager through the Microsoft Purview compliance portal directly.
Indirect Access: You can navigate from the Microsoft 365 Admin Center to the Microsoft Purview compliance portal, but you cannot configure the Admin Center to include Compliance Manager as an integrated feature.

The answer is correct as MS Learn shows:

The Microsoft 365 global administrator for your organization will likely be the first user to access Compliance Manager. We recommend the global admin sign in and set user permissions as outlined below when visiting Compliance Manager for the first time through the Microsoft Purview compliance portal

All these different product names, some of which are umbrella names for other products, which change names over time, are incredibly confusing.

Go to the Microsoft Purview compliance portal and sign in with your Microsoft 365 global administrator account. Select Compliance Manager on the left navigation pane. You'll arrive at your Compliance Manager dashboard.

As announced both in-product (February 4, 2021) and via documentation, we will soon retire Compliance Manager (classic) from the Microsoft Service Trust Portal.

We recommend using Compliance Manager within the Microsoft 365 compliance center,
