You deploy an Azure resource. The resource becomes unavailable for an extended period due to a service outage.

Microsoft will

- refund your bank account.
- migrate the resource to another subscription.
- credit your Azure account.
- send you a coupon code that you can redeem for Azure credits.

Right? I've read in a similar question that you need to claim the credits yourself and MS doesn't do it for you. Has this been changed per June 2023?

Another interesting point is, credits would not be applied to any other services that you may be using if you stop using the service

You should Submit a Claim at the end of the next month.
then microsoft will credit you Correct!
